PROCUREMENT COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

ST Logistics Pte Ltd ("ST Logistics") is committed to conducting its procurement activities fairly, consistently and in accordance with its applicable procurement policies, guidelines and procedures.

All suppliers participating in ST Logistics' procurement activities are required to observe the following:

1. Shortlisting and evaluation

Shortlisting and evaluation decisions will be made by ST Logistics and, where applicable, the relevant evaluation stakeholders, in accordance with the requirements applicable to the procurement exercise.

Suppliers must not:

a. seek to improperly interfere with, intervene in or circumvent the shortlisting or evaluation process;
b. separately approach any user, evaluator, customer representative or other personnel involved in the procurement exercise in an attempt to improperly affect the shortlisting or evaluation process, or to circumvent the designated communication channel; or
c. seek or attempt to obtain, other than through the communication channel designated by ST Logistics, any confidential or non-public information concerning:
    i. the conduct or status of the shortlisting or evaluation process;
    ii. the evaluation of any supplier's submission;
    iii. the submission, evaluation or standing of any other supplier;
    iv. any evaluation result, recommendation or intended award decision; or
    v. the internal deliberations of ST Logistics or any relevant evaluation stakeholder.

2. Communications concerning procurement exercises

All questions, requests, representations and other communications concerning a tender, quotation or procurement exercise must be submitted only through the communication channel designated by ST Logistics. ST Logistics will give each communication such consideration and weight as it considers appropriate, but is not obliged to respond, provide an explanation or engage in further correspondence.

3. Compliance

Suppliers are required to comply with these protocols and with any additional instructions stated in the relevant procurement documents.

Any failure to comply may result in the supplier's immediate disqualification or exclusion from the relevant procurement exercise and may be taken into account in determining the supplier's eligibility to participate in future procurement exercises. ST Logistics reserves the right to take any action as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

By submitting an offer or continuing to participate in the relevant procurement exercise, the supplier accepts and agrees to comply with ST Logistics' procurement processes and this Statement. The supplier shall also sign and return a written Acceptance if required by ST Logistics.
